SEC: Introduction to God's Laws

We will wind up here in just a little bit and lay down some fundamental concepts that the Bible is built on. This is a place where we begin to see things from God's perspective, not from our own perspective or from the world's perspective.

Then we talked about the fifth law, which was the Law of Human Collapse. We talked about how this law is a natural law: the moment man begins his own journey, he begins to deteriorate in everything that he does. Man, left to himself, will always wind up being a disaster. God has to infuse Himself into our culture, into our lives, into the history of any nation, of any country. We saw
